

Emmanuelle Sée is joining Swiss Life Asset Managers in France

15 September 2022

Emmanuelle Sée is joining Swiss Life Asset Managers France. She will be Head Equity Management.

Swiss Life Asset Managers France is pleased to announce the recruitment of Emmanuelle Sée to the newly created position of Head Equity Management.

Emmanuelle Sée will be responsible for consolidating the equity range, supporting the implementation of the “quantamental” strategy (a combination of quantitative and fundamental) – in particular the three impact theme funds biodiversity; climate; green buildings and infrastructure – and for playing an active role in developing the offering for this asset class in France and abroad.

Emmanuelle Sée has more than ten years of asset management experience with an international background. She began her career at Bank of China and then moved to Amundi Japan, where she worked in various positions from 2014 to 2021. Since 2021, Emmanuelle Sée has been Global Thematic Equities Manager at CPR AM (Amundi Group), with a focus on ESG solutions, including climate and environmental solutions.

Emmanuelle Sée holds a Master’s degree in finance from INALCO and two Bachelor’s degrees in Chinese and Japanese from INALCO.

Emmanuelle Sée will report directly to Denis Lehman, Head Securities of Swiss Life Asset Managers in France, and functionally to Patrick Brechbühl, Head Equities & Alternative Investments at Swiss Life Asset Managers.

“I am delighted to welcome Emmanuelle Sée, whose international experience and thematic management will be a real asset to support the development of our equity range for our institutional investment and retail clients,” says Denis Lehman, Head Securities Asset Management of Swiss Life Asset Managers in France.
